IRONTON, MO. - DEC. 30, 1915.

VOLUME XLIX. NUMBER 30.

WHERE are the "soup houses" and the millions of tramps prophesied by the g. o. p. press? How I'd like to be a member of a party whose daily prayer is for "Wilson hard times"—whose hope for ascendancy is dependent upon general misfortune?

ONLY fifteen hundred million dollars! That's the trifling sum the navy patriots want Congress to appropriate for their department now, to cover expenditures for several years ensuing! One million laborers, putting their wages at two dollars a day, each, in two and one-half years could earn the amount called for. See how modest the demand when you cipher it down!

THE Rev. Charles Scoville, "Evangelist," scooped up $4500 for his seven weeks' holding forth in Jefferson City. A per diem of about one hundred dollars. Pretty fair pay for modern apostolic services, and in marked contrast to the remuneration of the olden apostles who were divinely commanded to go forth and preach "without money and without price." However, who shall say it is not a pleasing conjunction—the salvation of souls with the accumulation of dollars?

THE Richmond, (Va.) Times-Dispatch congratulates Missouri's metropolis upon its successful endeavors to secure the Democratic National Convention: "Greetings to St. Louis, for it is to be the Democratic National Convention city next year. Ecce Speaker Clark and Senators Stone and Reed! They did it. St. Louis has history, hospitality of the Virginia brand, fair women, and men who always look pleasant regardless of the weather. The heat which beats down on the fine old town from the opening of the first rose in June until the leaves begin to turn is a tonic when you get used to it. The convention next held will be the fifth for the second City. In the first Tilden and Hendricks were the nominees."

THE following is an excerpt from "The Circuit Riders," contributed by Bishop Hamilton to The Youth's Companion. It treats of early times in the West, and standing prominently out in the contrast between the unselfish devotion of good men then and the lucre-scooping Sundays, Scovilles, Burks, Hobbes, and lesser evangelical lights of to-day.

Into those conditions of life came an order of itinerant preachers and teachers, like the prophets of old, to meet the exigencies of the times. President William Henry Harrison, in describing the "circuit riders," wrote thus: "They are men whom no labor tires, no scenes disgust, no danger frightens, in the discharge of their duty. To gain recruits for their Master's service they sedulously seek out the victims of vice in the abodes of misery and wretchedness. The vow of poverty is not taken by these men, but their conduct is precisely such as it would have been had they taken one; their stipulated pay is barely sufficient to perform the service assigned them. With much the larger portion, the horse, which they can call their own, and the contents of their valise or saddlebags, are the sum total of their earthly possessions."

THE "night-riders" in some of the Southeast counties—what is the cause of their being? There is no effect without a cause, and in this instance if one outside the infected territory may judge backward from results there is something fundamentally wrong in conditions down there. Is prevalent and growing landlordism the evil factor? I fear it is. The possession of thousands of acres of lands by one individual or corporation is something that should never have been possible under a government professing to base its existence on the doctrine of the greatest good to the greatest number. Landlordism breeds serfs who, while they feel the sting of injustice and oppression, see no chance for redress under the law. Hence they lawlessly seek to lighten their burdens and free themselves from the evil conditions encompassing them. I gladly admit, all landlords are not oppressors; but in this land of the free it were infinitely preferable if there could be no landlords with princely possessions. Would that no man could own his thousands of acres of the land necessary to the welfare and happiness of men willing in the sweat of their brows to enjoy the fruits of honest labor!

JUST to cheer (?) the drooping souls of my calamity-howling Republican brethren, I reproduce the following three out of dozens of similar specials being sent to the daily press these days:

5,000 GET WAGE INCREASE.
NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Between 5,000 and 7,000 employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company to-day received a Christmas gift from the company in the form of general increase in wages to take effect January 1. It was estimated that the increase would total about $250,000 a year. All motormen, conductors and guards are affected.

$85,000 IN CHRISTMAS GIFT.
WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 24.—The Graton and Knight Manufacturing Company to-day distributed $85,000 among its 1,700 employees as bonuses for loyalty during the past year in an unprecedented rush of business.

DULUTH IS HAPPY.
DULUTH, Minn., Dec. 24.—Citizens of Duluth and of the thriving cities of the Northern Minnesota iron mining zone turned "good fellows" to-day and filled every stocking hung up by the poor, privately fed and cared for all unlucky families.

Everyone had money—everyone spent money. No man is out of work except by choice. Employers who had never given Christmas presents to employees gave to-day, and those accustomed to giving in past years gave more.
Lumber companies established a precedent by feeding lumberjacks the first turkey dinner ever served in the remote camps. They also raised wages. The mining companies opened the busiest winter in the history of the industry by putting their men on a three-shift basis.
